

to N. P. Rogers, one to the Non-Resistant
& the other eight to the Mass. A. S. Society. So you see I shall get my pay probably.

I am just leaving for Providence expecting to return to Pawtucket and Slaters this evening. To-morrow & Wednesday day at North Attleborough, Thursday to Weymouth then via Falmouth to New Bedford where I hope to shake hands with you. I wish you a joyful time this afternoon at Daniel Hall Jr. in humble Chatham Street.

Brother Hayward (where I now am) is doing well for a minister. He will not long be in the "brotherhood."

Yours <sup>affectionately</sup> upon the sun
Pillsbury-

Atleboro August 2nd 1841

Dear Mr. L.

257

I have but a moment, but I must just write a word by ~~Mr.~~ Maynard. I hope you will put Collins up on that matter of the finances. I am afraid neither he or the Board are aware of the importance of a most thorough exposure of the pecuniary transactions of the Society. Rely upon it, Bishop and Adams have friends among the good & true. They do not perhaps know him so well as you do, & so think he was misused. I have always declared for the integrity of the Board, and am therefore most anxious as to the final results.

We are making some stir in "these diggings." Taunton is on fire. The papers say, "May Thayer deliver the Anti-Slavery Cause from such advocates as this Pillsbury." But the Abolitionists, and even new organizationists, were delighted & pleased with the meetings, though they said positions so bold were never before advanced in this state. We had thorough work.

At the close, one man counted me out ten 10 dollar bills and said give one